

CONTACT

1.218.452.0493

ALEXANDRIAMAXWELLWRITES@GMAIL.COM

PROFILE

Alexandria Maxwell is a writer and poet from Warroad, Minnesota. She has been published in Colorado Christian University's literary and art journal, Paragon, every spring while she attended the University. When she isn't writing, she enjoys reading, drinking coffee, and spending time with her husband, Seth. The two of them with their dog, Axel, live in a camper and travel the United States full-time.

Alexandria Maxwell

PREVIOUS WORKS

AESTHETIC BLINDNESS

SELF-PUBLISHED | JUNE 2017

Aesthetic Blindness is a micro-chapbook, with eight poems and a short story. The poems range in form from free-verse to sonnet. This micro-chapbook is a portfolio of Alexandria's university time, as half of the works were previously published in Paragon, Colorado Christian University's Literary and Art Journal.

EDUCATION

BACHELOR OF ARTS, MAJOR IN ENGLISH

COLORADO CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY | 2014 - 2017
GPA: 3.9

MEDIA

Website www.alexandriamaxwellwrites.com

Facebook @alexmaxwrites

Twitter @alexmaxwrites

Soundcloud soundcloud.com/alexmaxwrites